

STUDY ABROAD

LATIN AMERICA

Costa Rica is an ecotourism center where you can appreciate its staggering beauty and wildlife. It's also the perfect place for a volunteer opportunity or internship to complement your studies. Mexico's rich culture and friendly people make it an excellent place to study and live. For language learning, vibrant city life, and adventure, look no further than South America, which boasts great diversity including European colonial towns, indigenous cultures, and sublime landscapes in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Ecuador, and Uruguay.

CONNECT WITH ISEP

FEATURED ISEP DIRECT PROGRAMS IN CENTRAL AMERICA

COSTA RICA | EARTH University ●

Experience natural splendor and tackle sustainability and conservation at EARTH University, an innovative and experiential international community located in the country's tropical Caribbean lowlands. Take semester courses in Spanish in environmental science, organic agriculture, community development, and more while working on a farm or other service projects around the large rural campus and reserve.

COSTA RICA | Grupo de Kansas at Universidad de Costa Rica ●

Master your Spanish language skills through the intensive Early Start Program or directly enroll in courses in Spanish at Universidad de Costa Rica (UCR), one of the top 20 universities in all of Latin America, centrally located in the cosmopolitan capital city, San José. A wide range of courses in Spanish are offered while the country's incredible markets, museums, volcanoes, waterfalls, and beaches are a short trip away.

COSTA RICA | International Center for Development Studies (ICDS) ●

Acquire new skills or hone your existing Spanish language proficiency on the Health Care in Latin America program at ICDS, where quality academic programs focus on sustainability, social justice, and health. Complete hospital rotations at Hospital Clínica Bíblica (a top hospital in Latin America) or community service as part of your experiential program in the engaging and easy-going Costa Rican capital of San José.

MEXICO | Universidad de Monterrey (UEM)

Study in Monterrey, one of Mexico's largest and most livable cities, and an important industrial and financial center located in a beautiful valley. UDEM's variety of subjects are taught in English or Spanish, and the business program is AACSB accredited. A highly ranked university, UDEM also offers many student organizations, excursions, community service opportunities, and more to engage with locals.

● ISEP Direct Summer Program Available

GET STARTED AND SEARCH PROGRAMS:

www.isep.org

ISEP DIRECT PROGRAMS IN SOUTH AMERICA

ARGENTINA | Universidad Blas Pascal ●

Live like a local student on UBP's lovely traditional campus situated in Córdoba, Argentina's second largest city and the quaint colonial heart of the country. Take courses in Spanish, immerse yourself in Argentine culture, and explore the stunning surrounding mountains, rivers, and lakes while you're not studying.

ARGENTINA | Universidad del Salvador

Experience Argentine culture and the sophisticated metropolis of Buenos Aires, an ideal city for international students with its cultural diversity, thriving music and arts scene, and vibrant nightlife. USAL, one of the country's most highly regarded institutions, offers courses in both English and Spanish and a large, active student body.

BRAZIL | Fundação Armando Alvares Penteado (FAAP) ●

Study in business and international studies in English or Portuguese language in São Paulo, the economic, artistic, and cultural heart of Brazil, world-renowned for nightlife, excellent cuisine, and a melting pot of cultures.

CHILE | Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso (PUCV) ●

Located on the beautiful Pacific coast of Chile in the culture capital and port city of Valparaíso and under two hours from Santiago, PUCV is a prestigious institution and the most popular ISEP destination in Latin America.

ECUADOR | CEDEI - Semester in the Andes

Venture to South America's iconic sites like Machu Picchu and the Galapagos Islands on excursions included in your semester at the Center for Interamerican Studies (CEDEI) in the charming colonial city of Cuenca, a UNESCO World Heritage Site situated in the beautiful mountains.

URUGUAY Universidad Católica del Uruguay

Discover Uruguay's colonial towns, beautiful beaches, hot springs, and mild climate while studying in Montevideo, the country's artsy and eclectic port capital. Study alongside local students in Spanish at UCU.

FEATURED ISEP DIRECT SUMMER PROGRAMS IN LATIN AMERICA

CHILE

Universidad Católica del Norte Atacama Summer Immersion Program

Study astronomy, mining, and architecture and the industries' impact on the regional and national economies. The program includes practical field activities, excursions through the desert and more, and a homestay in Northern Chile for four weeks.

COSTA RICA

EARTH University Sustainable Summer Sessions

Choose from several two-week courses that focus on specific issues such as tropical forest conservation, sustainable agriculture, environmental impact, and more that include hands-on learning and field visits with international researchers.

MEXICO

Tecnológico de Monterrey iSummerMX

Spend four weeks on different cities across Mexico studying the culture as part of ten different academic itineraries including marketing, business, architecture, Latin music, migration, economics, and more.

FULL-TIME INTERNSHIPS IN LATIN AMERICA

MEDELLÍN, COLOMBIA ●

SAN JOSÉ, COSTA RICA ●

SANTIAGO, CHILE ●

● ISEP Direct Summer Program Available

CREATE AN ACCOUNT & START YOUR APPLICATION:
www.isep.org/apply