VOLUNTEER ABROAD

Extend your studies beyond the classroom and into local communities for valuable hands-on experience. With ISEP you can volunteer in many ways while studying abroad: enroll in a meaningful service-learning course, volunteer on projects with nonprofits, teach at local schools, or take advantage of other opportunities at your host institution. Our expert advising team can help you identify programs with volunteer opportunities that suit your interests.

ISEP STUDY & VOLUNTEER IN GHANA

For a unique study abroad experience, look no further than ISEP's flagship Study & Volunteer in Ghana program at the University of Ghana. Immerse yourself in the country's rich culture and engage with local communities.

The University of Ghana is located in Accra, Ghana's capital and the fastest growing city in Africa. UG has a wide variety of course options and can accommodate most majors! Strongly recommended for African Studies, Social Sciences, Public Health, Humanities, and resource management.

Enjoy not only the beautiful campus and vibrant city, but also golden beaches, towering waterfalls, key historical sites, a bustling city, and access to see Ghanaian wildlife.

Past Volunteer placements include:

Mawuvio Outreach Program: Projects include teaching, farming, and strategic communications.

Echoing Hills: Projects include supporting basic nursing needs and counseling services.

West Africa AIDS Foundation: Opportunities for students in business and marketing.

West African Primate Conservation Action: Projects include feeding and tending to animals alongside caretaker.

This program offers:

- Diverse ISEP-facilitated community service opportunities. See www.isep.org/ghanaguide for a full list of options.
- An on-site resident director, airport pickup, and facilitated excursions
- Courses with local students and in local history and culture, including: Traditional drumming and dancing, Twi for beginners, The Black Diaspora, African philosophy, & African Indigenous Religions

ALUMNI SUCCESS

"During my interview process, I really talked a lot about my service learning experience... When Google actually discussed with me my offer, they said it was one of the things they absolutely loved hearing about. That's what makes you stand out as a candidate."

- Simone Douglas, N.C. A&T Alumna
