Central, Western, & Eastern Europe

Study in Paris | American Business School of Paris

Experience what the locals call the art de vivre (the art of living) in the hub of French politics, art, fashion, gastronomy, commerce, and social activism. Explore iconic museums, quaint cafes, bustling markets, lush parks, and everything in between. Choose from a selection of over 50 classes in business fields of study.

Study in France | Université Savoie Mont Blanc

Enjoy the beauty of Chambéry with its historical buildings, museums, pedestrian squares, and streets with colorful cafe terraces. The area is known for its quality of life, magnificent natural surroundings, history, and heritage. Enhance your French language proficiency through this language and culture intensive program.

Study in Germany | Philipps-Universität Marburg

With its charming, medieval atmosphere, Marburg is enchanting. Stroll along the idyllic river, stop by a café, and enjoy the views from the hilltop castle. Deepen your understanding of German language and culture while also learning more about business, sciences, global studies, and humanities from a German perspective.

Study in Brussels | Brussels School of Governance

Enjoy living in the “small, big city” of Brussels, home to a vast international community where there is always a concert, museum, or spacious park nearby to explore. Known as the “capital of Europe”, Brussels has tremendous global significance and has been shaped by a range of cultural influences that visitors will experience.

Study in Prague | University of New York in Prague

Live in the picturesque city of Prague, a centrally located city in Europe filled with historic and modern treasures to discover along cobblestone streets. At UNYP, enjoy small class sizes while immersed in an internationally diverse student community in one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Study in the Czech Republic | Masaryk University

Cathedrals, castles, a historic town center—step into Brno, the second largest city in the Czech Republic, located just 2.5 hours from Prague, and explore countless cafés, beautiful architecture, and a thriving art scene. Centrally located and a ton of fun, students love this quirky, youthful college town.

Study in Estonia | University of Tartu

Estonia has over 2000 islands and is comprised of almost 50% forested land, with almost a quarter of that being protected nature areas. Outdoor enthusiasts will love hunting for mushrooms in the pine-filled forests or swimming in a bog lake in the Estonian wilderness. Classes are entirely taught in English on this program.

Study in the Netherlands | Leiden University

Explore the beauty of Leiden while biking along the breezy seashore, near monumental windmills, or through brick-lined streets surrounded by tulips. Academic buildings are spread out throughout the city, which helps students integrate into the town and experience life like a local.
