Study in Barcelona | Universitat Pompeu Fabra

Barcelona is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world, but studying in this famous city means you'll be able to discover lesser-known places. Find your own favorite spot to grab a morning espresso, bar for tapas, or barrio for a quiet stroll before a late-night dinner. ISEP's on-site Resident Director, Maria Mateu, will help ease your transition into Barcelona and can provide endless recommendations for things to do.

Study in Greece | American College of Thessaloniki

Thessaloniki is a modern seaport city and world renowned cultural heritage site that is known for its breath-taking natural beauty, vast historic treasures, and 200+ inhabited islands. Stroll along the promenade for endless seaside views or wander around Aristotelous Square to take in monuments that date back to 300 CE. ACT offers a truly immersive, cross-cultural learning experience in historic Thessaloniki, which is a student hub in Greece.

Study in Milan | Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore

Youthful, fashionable, and energetic, there is an inspiring beauty to Milan. A mix of modern efficiency and Northern Italian tradition, it is the epicenter of fashion, design, and business in Italy. A wide range of academic options make this an excellent spot for studying, and despite the glitz of some neighborhoods, the city remains affordable and accessible for students. The campus is even located in the historic city center near ancient ruins!
