

SUMMER 2018 PROGRAMS

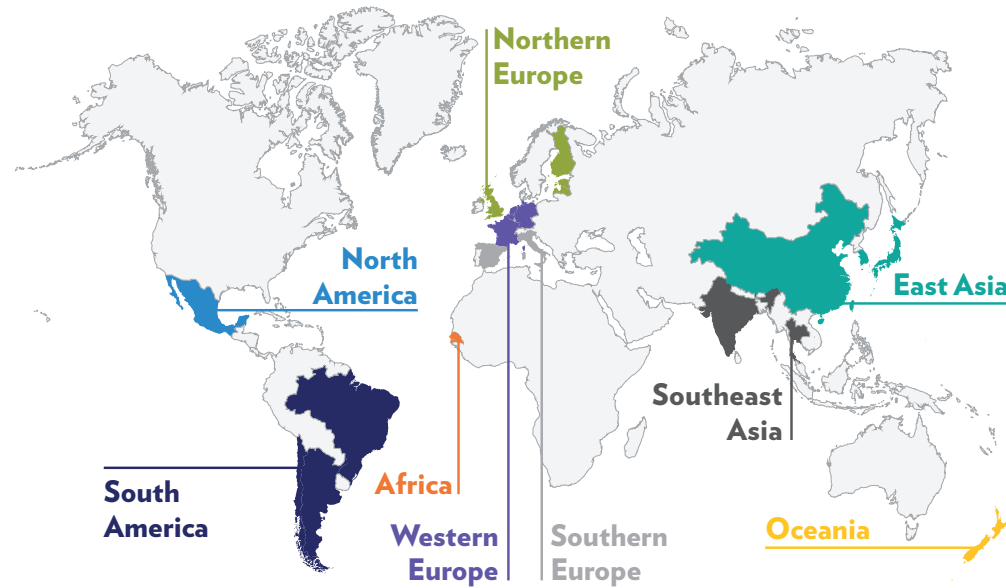

Photo by Renee Aung Cornish from St. Edward's University

SUMMER PROGRAMS IN ENGLISH

BELGIUM

Focus on Europe

Vesalius College
Late May – Mid July; US$5,250

Brussels is home to a myriad of international organizations and multinational companies, and serves as a great place to explore the best of European culture and travel. You can choose from course topics including business, communications and international affairs and complete an internship for credit. You will be housed with a host family in the Brussels, an opportunity to gain a full cultural immersion and enrich your study abroad experience.

ESTONIA & LATVIA

The Collapse of Communism and Beyond

University of Tartu
July; US$3,600

Learn about changes that occurred in Estonia and Latvia after the collapse of communism. This program takes you to three cities to explore social, economic and judicial issues. Take advantage of excursions to historic sites, museums, galleries and theater performances.

FINLAND

Summer in Human Sciences

University of Jyväskylä
Mid May – Mid June;
Fee based on home university costs

Located in the Blue Lake district, Jyväskylä is a lively city in a beautiful setting of lakes, ridges, and forests. Experience festivals and outdoor activities while taking classes through the Jyväskylä Summer School in Human Sciences.

INDIA

Study in India Program

University of Hyderabad
July; US$3,500

Discover Hyderabad, the culture capital of Andhra Pradesh, while exploring picturesque historical monuments, a burgeoning IT industry and everything in between. Study various angles of contemporary India on one of India's most attractive and well-equipped campuses.

ITALY

Summer Arts Program

Hendrix College and Accademia dell'Arte
Early July – Early August; US$4,950

Experience the wonders of Tuscany during this unique summer program that combines performing arts with liberal arts for an intense artistic experience. Embark on excursions that will explore local history and culture.

NEW ZEALAND

Expedition and Internship: Agriculture and Environment

Massey University
Late May – Early July; US$6,400

Experience glaciers, volcanoes and geothermal zones during a two-week introduction to New Zealand. Transition into a four-week internship with various agricultural organizations.

NEW ZEALAND

Expedition and Internship: Communication and Marketing

Massey University
Early June – Late July; $6,400

Spend your summer exploring New Zealand's successful tourism industry and interning at an organization with a community service or social justice focus. See the contrast between the tourism-oriented businesses and organizations focused on real world problems relevant to your degree.

NEW ZEALAND

Expedition and Internship: Disaster Risk and Emergency Management

Massey University
Late June – Early August; $6,400

Start off your program with two weeks of traveling throughout New Zealand and learning about the world's responses to significant hazards and emergencies. Continue with an internship assisting with the New Zealand government's response to large-scale emergencies.

NEW ZEALAND

Creative Expression and Digital Media

Massey University
Early June – Late July; $6,400

Experience the urban, rural and wilderness locations of New Zealand in order to better understand the physical and human geography which shapes New Zealand's traditions of creative expression.

SENEGAL

Summer Service Learning in Dakar

Institut d'Études Africaines de Dakar
Early May – Mid June; $4,000
Late June – Early August; $4,000

Experience the dynamic and familial culture of Francophone West Africa by living, learning, and volunteering in Senegal! This 5 week program includes homestay, optional French language immersion or courses in English, and community engagement opportunities in one of Africa's most vibrant cities!

THAILAND

Buddhism and Thai Society

Thammasat University
Late June – Early August; $3,300

Immerse yourself in Thai culture in Bangkok, a fascinating city known for its ornate shrines and vibrant street life. Choose from course topics including the relationship between Buddhism and Thai history, politics, economics, education and more. Enjoy excursions to Ayudhaya, Pimai, Surin and Chiang Mai.

U.K.: N. IRELAND

Irish Studies

Ulster University
Early July – Early August; $5,450

Adjacent to the Causeway Coast and the Donegal and Sperrin Mountains, Ulster University is in one of the most beautiful and culturally rich regions of Western Europe. This program provides a specialist knowledge of Irish studies across drama, film, history and literature.

U.K.: N. IRELAND

Irish Studies and Engineering

Ulster University
Early July – Early August; $5,450

Experience the opportunity to rediscover engineering through managed practical courses where the academic and the practical meet to reinforce the fundamentals of mechanics, dynamics and microcontrollers.

U.K.: ENGLAND

Humanities and Business Programs

University of Roehampton
Early June – Early July, Late June – Late July, or Early June – Late July;
Three Week Program: $3,250
Six Week Program: $4,800

Using London as a classroom, the University of Roehampton offers you a variety of humanities and business classes. Take advantage of the excellent facilities and easy access to London's museums, libraries, galleries and nightlife.

ISEP Exchange Program

ISEP Direct Program

Find more information at ISEPStudyAbroad.org.

SUMMER PROGRAMS IN A HOST LANGUAGE

ARGENTINA ●

Spanish Language and Argentine Culture

Universidad Blas Pascal
Early July – Early August; US$3,800

Spend a summer in Córdoba, a city that attracts water sports enthusiasts, hikers, rock climbers and more. Experience true Argentine culture by taking advantage of exciting excursions around Córdoba.

BRAZIL ●

Brazilian Language, History and Culture

Fundação Armando Álvares Penteado
Mid June – Late July; US$3,750

Study Portuguese in São Paulo, one of the world's most populous cities. Join cultural activities and experience authentic cuisine in the traditional Mercado Municipal. This program combines intensive language study with culture and literature classes.

CHILE ●

Spanish Language and Chilean Culture

Pontificia Universidad Católica de Valparaíso
Late June – Late July; US$4,700

Discover the Valparaíso region of Chile and take advantage of beautiful weather, beaches and mountains. This program combines intensive language study with an overview of national literature and socio-political issues.

MEXICO ●

Summer School: Regular University Courses

Tecnológico de Monterrey, Monterrey
Late May – Early July;
Fee based on home university costs

As the business hub of Mexico, Monterrey is the ideal location to learn business practices while improving Spanish language skills. Enjoy easy access to the old town of Barrio Antiguo, where you can find cafes, bars, cultural events, museums and vibrant nightlife.

FRANCE ●

Intensive Language and Cultural Studies

Université Savoie Mont Blanc
Late May – Late July; US$4,250

A gateway city to the French Alps, Chambéry will impress with colorful cafe terraces, historical town center and breathtaking views. With intensive classroom learning and activities, you will make progress in French, gain cultural experiences and explore the Savoie region. The program is for all language levels.

JAPAN ●

Intensive Japanese Language Program

Nanzan University
Early June – Mid July; US$4,400

Experience cultural immersion in Nagoya, one of Japan's largest cities. This intermediate to advanced language program lets you take classes in cultural studies, traditional arts, politics and economics. Take advantage of excursions to historical places, including Nagoya Castle, Tsumago-juku and the Grand Sumo Tournament.

SPAIN ●

Spanish Language and Culture Program

Universidad de Almería
July; US$2,750

Spend a summer in sunny Almería, with beautiful beaches, natural parks and an array of villages to visit. Improve your Spanish through a combination of classroom instruction and excursions through southern Spain, including trips to the Alhambra in Granada, Cabo de Gata Natural Park and cultural landmarks throughout Almería.

- ISEP Exchange Program
- ISEP Direct Program

Find more information at ISEPStudyAbroad.org.

NEW ZEALAND

Photo by Leah Harger, from Massey University

SUMMER PROGRAMS IN ENGLISH AND A HOST LANGUAGE

CHINA ●

International Summer School

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

More information on this program will be available soon. Visit isepstudyabroad.org for updates.

FRANCE ●

French Language and Culture

Université de Caen

Session 1: June

Session 2: July

Dorm: US$2,400;

Homestay with meals: US$2,950

Develop your language skills and experience French culture in Caen, a city that offers unique historical heritage, with the comfort of modern infrastructure. Combine language classes with one of five thematic modules. Your experience extends beyond the classroom with weekend excursions and the opportunity to stay with a host family or in a University residence.

GERMANY ●

International Summer in Business and Economics

Leibniz Universität Hannover
Mid July – Late August; US$2,350

Live in the "green metropolis" of Germany and travel via the country's excellent public transport system all while taking German language courses. Gain practical experience in the center of Europe's economic powerhouse, Germany! Enroll in economics, business and German language classes and take advantage of field trips to surrounding German companies or optional excursions.

GERMANY ●

International Summer University

Philipps-Universität Marburg
Late July – Mid August; US$3,178

The university town of Marburg spreads along the valley of the river Lahn and is just as famous for its beautiful surroundings as its impressive alumni, the Brothers Grimm. This summer program combines courses taught in either English or German in politics, economics, Middle Eastern Studies and German Studies with German language study available at all levels.

ITALY ●

Summer Session

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore
Four-week: Mid June – Mid July; US$5,700
Six-week: Early June – Mid July; US$7,750

Study in one of the world's biggest business and fashion capitals, while exploring the city's wealth of monuments, palaces, churches and museums. Choose from a variety of topics including business, communications, Italian language and culture, agribusiness and food science.

SOUTH KOREA ●

Korean and East Asian Studies

Yonsei University
Late June – August;
fee based on home university costs

At Yonsei University, you can experience Korean culture through a variety of lessons including K-Pop singing, taekwondo, ceramics, Korean cooking and more. Choose from a wide variety of courses and activities that will introduce Korea's history and culture.

SOUTH KOREA ●

International Summer School

Hanyang University

More information on this program will be available soon. Visit isepstudyabroad.org for updates.

MEXICO ●

Program for Research Improving Spanish Language Skills

Universidad de Guanajuato

June – Early August;

Fee based on home university costs

Spend your summer in colonial Mexico, completing research. Participate in the program's excursions and culture workshops, including cooking and dancing lessons.

SPAIN ●

Teach English, Learn Spanish

Universidad de Vigo
Mid June – Late July; US$4,200

Vigo's natural environment offers hiking and biking in the hills, sunbathing and surfing on beautiful beaches and more. Improve your Spanish while also learning about teaching English as a foreign language, and get a unique opportunity to work at local schools as language assistants.

SENEGAL ●

Service Learning in West Africa

Institut d'Études Africaines de Dakar
Mid May – Late June or Late June – Early August; US$4,000 per session

Experience the dynamic and familial culture of Francophone West Africa by living, learning and volunteering in Senegal. This program includes a homestay, optional French language immersion or courses in English and community engagement opportunities in one of Africa's most vibrant cities.

TAIWAN ●●

Chinese Language, Culture and Business

Providence University
Late June - August;
ISEP Exchange: fee based on home university costs; ISEP Direct: US$3,350

Surrounded by lush greenery and landscapes, this program provides the chance to make friendships both inside the classroom and out. Whether you are working to improve your Mandarin, taking field trips to business enterprises, or participating in many of the region's cultural practices and activities, you are in for an adventure.

DOs & DON'Ts FOR THE SUMMER

DO: Consider a program if you can't fit a semester abroad into your schedule.

DO: Take advantage of the time you have, and start living like a local.

DON'T: Be afraid to try a new language. Many programs are for speakers at all levels, including beginners!

Find more information at ISEPStudyAbroad.org.